A Place Beyond The Map

A Place Beyond the Map is an imaginative, clever, and fun read! I really liked how the story unfolded, and I found myself laughing out loud multiple times. The take on this fairy tale world and its creatures was really creative, and I love how the descriptions of characters and places were so vivid that I could easily picture them in my mind.

"Beyond the Map is in fact very much a map of our existing world or, better still, of our imagination of the world. Places we never knew were there, places that are there because we've dreamt them up so forcefully, places that were there and then vanished into oblivion are all beautifully described in this witty, erudite, original volume that deserves a place between Mandeville's Travels ...

For some maps "Bright" or "Mini" versions are available. Brighter maps are those where the brightness from the original map was increased to make it easier to see holes or buttons (necessary in dark dungeons). Miniaturized versions were made for maps that were too big to fit in a normal scale picture. INDEX: The maps are sorted by order of appearance in the game.
