Review: An English Ghost Story by Kim Newman - Amazing Stories

All the ghosts had special places in Hilltop Heights, like Club's cave or Goodie and Crispin's herb garden. The Gloomy Ghost's special place was a sad copse down by a stagnant stream. When not making mischief for Weezie, the Gloomy Ghost lay on the rocks like a pool of black slime or hovered low about stunted roots like a thick mist.

An English Ghost Story by Kim Newman REVIEW - Spooky Isles

Kim Newman makes me love and hate this story at the same time, and I honestly can't decide which. Even so, I have to brand this a success. Picture, if you will, the classic Victorian era ghost story, ramped up with 20th century horror movie elements designed to creep out modern audiences without being truly scary.

An English Ghost Story By: Kim Newman. For Helen Spring They would fall in a clump, like ripe apples. Mother, father, daughter, son. Touched by the charm, their persistent - though thinned - love would flare. As only once before, at the birth of baby Tim, the family would be a whole, united by fiercely shared feeling. Things that had seemed ...

The SF Site Featured Review: An English Ghost Story

'An English Ghost Story', by Kim Newman. The Naremores, a nuclear family in meltdown, abandon London for an idyllic rural retreat called the Hollow, which seems to be a cure for their ills. Even the ghosts that haunt it aren't a problem; they're friendly, benevolent. To begin with. Gradually, workaholic dad Steven, stressed mum Kirsty,...

The perennial reinventor of classic horror turns his sights on the traditional English haunted-house story. The Naremores, having suffered through an epic family meltdown, decide to move from London to the Somerset countryside to reconnect with one another, a prospect that seems dismal at best until the family stumbles as if by magic onto the Hollow, a rambling orchard house that was, until ...

AN ENGLISH GHOST STORY by Kim Newman | Kirkus Reviews

Clearly, such a story demands a tight focus on the inner lives of the characters, and to Newman's credit, An English Ghost Story never loses sight of this, despite the everyman, metafictional bent of the title. From its first pages to its last, the novel is a dissection of the dysfunctional Naremores, its point of view rotating between all ...

Book Review: An English Ghost Story by Kim Newman ...

An English Ghost Story tells the story of a young family who relocate from inner city London to the Hollow, a large country house with a strange history. Their desire to escape the city for the peace of the countryside soon takes a turn for the worse when ghosts begin to reveal themselves through a series of paranormal events.
