Angel Cake was apparently inspired by a real Polish girl, who really did write vividly about her first day at school in the UK and this book is vivid too. It has great energy but also a good deal of clear-eyed kindness and common sense about it. Cassidy is a very popular author and you really can see why.

Angel Cake by Cathy Cassidy - TheBookbag.co.uk book review

About: It's been a very long time since I've read a young fiction novel. So long, in fact, that when I finished reading Angel Cake by British author Cathy Cassidy, I felt thirteen again. Really. It was like stepping back in time, feeling all those adolescent emotions once more. It also felt ...
