Love is a more excellent way to resolve differences than civil lawsuits. Paul states that it is unchristian for fellow believers to take their differences to heathen courts--to rely on those who know nothing of the grace of God to settle their problems.

A More Excellent Way - Faithlife Sermons

The "more excellent way" is not some gift to be desired to the exclusion of the other gifts, but a more excellent way of striving for those gifts. You are not to strive for any one gift because it is more highly esteemed, or because it is more apparently useful, or because it is more easily attained.
