Angels In The Snow Melody

"Angels in the Snow" is very slow going in the beginning, well, it's slow going the whole way thru. The story seems canned to me, a bit like the winterized version of the poem "Footprints". Melody Carson writes lots of descriptive passages about the scenery and the weather but they lack any real integration with the central character.

Angels in the Snow: A Novella: Melody Carlson ...

Angels in the Snow by Melody Carlson is my 17th Christmas story of the season. This was a novella, which I normally don't like, but Melody Carlson is such a good writer I couldn't help but enjoy it. She can take a short story and give it the right amount of detail so it feels almost like a complete book. Many do not.
