The seventh book in the "Arisen" series advances the plot nicely, adds a new character or two (the Russian, sorry, Kazak) who developed the weaponized virus that kicked off this particular zombie apocalypse, and does it well.

Death of Empires (Arisen #7) by Glynn James - Goodreads

This is my first review of an Arisen series book. As with the rest, it just keeps building -- you know when things seem okay that the other shoe is hurtling at someone's head. The tension builds and the action is all over the globe. In Book Seven we catch up on the carrier and despite a brief respite, things (of course) rapidly go downhill.
