society, beyond the rotten structure. To help them means to give them the hope for the impossible. They live surrounded by the impossible. They never think of the impossible. God is the impossible. Religion itself is nothing but a passion for the impossible, the passion for the impossible. So if a person only lives with the possible, he lives lukewarm.

The Passion for the Impossible - OSHO RAJNEESH

'God loves with a great love the man whose heart is bursting with a passion for the impossible.' What an amazing thought!!! This is a quote attributed to William Booth who, with his wife Catherine, founded The Salvation Army, the worldwide church and charity organisation. The couple had a passion for God, a passion for sharing their Christian faith with the 'whosoever', and as the years ...
