There are two types of Texans. Those who love H-E-B. And those who don't know what they're missing. Recently, the beloved Texas-based grocer launched its 2019 Quest for Texas Best to search for the best local products made by Texans. The contest — which started in 2014 — considers food and beverage applicants from across the state for potential inclusion of their products at H-E-B stores.

"A Quest for More is about living for something larger than ourselves, building God's kingdom instead of our own. Its message is simple: if we try to get more for ourselves of everything this world tries to offer, we will end up with much less; but if we live for Jesus, we will end up getting so much more of everything God wants to give us."
