Amplified Bible Anonymous

The Amplified Bible takes what most Bibles say and amplifies it - hence the name. For example you may read John 3:16 where it says: "For God so loved the world...." Well, the Amplified Bible adds to it and says: "For God so GREATLY loved and dearly prized the world..." Something similar happens with every verse in the Bible.

Best Answer: If any bible be divinely inspired then any layman or learned person will pick it up, read it, and understanding exactly the same. There would be no need for "amplified" or "new translations". The simple fact that everyone understands the bible differently is proof enough that it is not an "absolute truth".
