Alafair Burke is back in prime form! She hit another Ellie Hatcher homerun with ANGEL'S TIP, the follow-up to Hatcher's debut in DEAD CONNECTION. Like Harlan Coben, Burke is a master of "imitating life." I love the pop culture allusions that weave throughout the plot. The nightlife, club scene in ANGEL'S TIP is one that is very foreign to me.

While Angel's Tip is part of the Ellie Hatcher series, plenty of information is shed from previous books to allow the reader to understand who the characters are and what is going on. I love how Ellie comes across not as a hard-nosed, bitter detective, but a cop with a softer side who feels other people's pain.

Angel's Tip by Alafair Burke - FictionDB

Angel's Tip is the title of the second in Alafair Burke's Ellie Hatcher series. Dead Connection is the first in the series. I haven't read Dead Connection and I do not feel that it is necessary to understand or enjoy Angel's Tip. I do intend on reading it at a later date just for a fuller history of our heroine Ellie Hatcher.
