It was an okay introduction into the world that this book inhabits but I felt like it was a bit predictable in places and the characters were a bit one dimensional. There's basically no build up to the love interest, they just sort of show up and are instantly in love with the protagonist.

Anathema, book one of the Cloud Prophet Trilogy by Megg Jensen, is a young adult fantasy that takes storytelling to a whole new level. This was a fresh look into a very interesting fantasy world. The author not only made use of settings and well developed characters, but she took a unique approach to the story line that I found very refreshing.
