As climate changes, a major question is whether nature can adapt to the changing conditions? The answer lies in the past. Throughout Earth's history, there have been periods where climate changed dramatically. The response was mass extinction events, when many species went extinct followed by a very slow recovery. The history of coral reefs gives us an insight into the nature of these events ...

Earth's five mass extinction events - Skeptical Science

I found these words from Isaac of Syria today. They are a good followup to the Gospel lesson for last Sunday from Luke in which Jesus tells the parable we commonly call The Prodigal Son. Isaac of Nineveh was a seventh-century bishop and monk whose fame is great throughout the Eastern Churches.
