A Peculiar Grace Jeffrey Lent

It took me forever to finish Jeffrey Lent's highly praised novel A Peculiar Grace. Forever. Just shy of 400 pages, it felt twice as long because Lent's prose is just shy of purple and nothing happens. Nothing.

A Peculiar Grace by Jeffrey Lent - Goodreads

A Peculiar Grace is an unforgettable tale of obsession, inspiration, and tragedy in a family of New England artists, by an author with "the absolute mastery to create his own reality" —Jim Harrison. Acclaimed novelist Jeffrey Lent's A Peculiar Grace was hailed by Howard Frank Mosher as "the best book to date by one of the two or three most gifted American novelists since William ...

A Peculiar Grace: A Novel: Jeffrey Lent: 9780871139658 ...

It is surprising to me that Jeffrey Lent is not more widely known, read, and celebrated as a novelist. "A Peculiar Grace" is a beautifully written novel about second chances, some taken, some not. The novel's characters ring true, especially for those of us who spent our formative years during the late 60's and early 70's.
