Any Human Heart. Logan Gonzago Mountstuart, writer, was born in 1906, and died of a heart attack on October 5, 1991, aged 85. William Boyd's novel Any Human Heart is his disjointed autobiography, a massive tome chronicling "my personal rollercoaster"--or rather, "not so much a rollercoaster", but a yo-yo, "a jerking spinning toy in the hands of a maladroit child."

Any Human Heart by William Boyd - Goodreads

Any Human Heart is a fictional autobiography, an innovative and seldom encountered genre. Though there are multiple emotional relationships in the life of Logan Mountstuart; widely differing careers, geographic switches from the UK to various European countries, and a particularly well-developed sojourn in Africa, every person, profession, and setting seems drawn directly from the writer's personal experience.
