I just finished reading a marvelous book, called Soprano on Her Head: Right-Side-Up Reflections on Life and Other Performances, by Eloise Ristad. My piano professor recommended I read this book during a lesson when we were discussing performance anxiety (which I experience frequently, I must admit).

Book Review: Soprano on Her Head - Color In My Piano

(Personal history has continually proven that my feeling of being "unprepared" exists primarily in my head, and one day, perhaps, I will begin to believe it!) However, with several deep breaths and a level head, I faced each rehearsal head on, offering the best I was able. After this experience, I feel like I can do anything.
